Summer Fair - next Saturday (29th) from 1 to 4pm
The bunting is up and it’s time to make sure you are ready for our Summer Fair:
✓ Sign up in the playground and get involved, however much time you have
✓ Remember to bring family, friends and neighbours
✓ Keep taking posters and flyers from the office to share
✓ Keep bringing in your unwanted (good condition) toys and children’s books
✓ Plan your time in advance with the fair map we will be sending home soon.

(All of us are members of the PTA, so we can all help out. When more of us volunteer, the Fair will be more enjoyable for everyone. The more volunteers there are, the less everyone has to do. On the day itself, just half an hour helping on a stall will make all the difference.)

Coffee and Craft Mornings
Come along to the next of our coffee and craft mornings tomorrow at 9am in the lower hall. There will be plenty of ways you can help prepare for our fair. The last one will be next Thursday (27th).

Curriculum Information Session update
Ben Roberts shared a very exciting article about the benefits of children simply spending more time outdoors at yesterday’s curriculum information sessions. He also reminded parents and carers of our own natural thinkers curriculum, which staff at Heathbrook created. Thank you for all the fantastic feedback about our wildlife garden following lots of hard work by children and families recently.
